AN INVITATION

Dear Friend/Friends,

You will be pleased to know that ANUVIBHA which has been waging a campaign against violence and hatred in consonance with the goals of UNO for the last 25 years is going to organize the 7th International Conference on Peace and Nonviolent Action in two parts at Jaipur (India) from 10th November to 14th November, 2008. It will be held under the auspices of His Holiness Acharya Mahapragya, one of the most revered national saints and a celebrated Jain Acharya known for his historic Ahimsa Yatra (a journey on foot to enhance people's awareness of nonviolence) and Yuvacharya Mahashraman, successor to Acharya Mahapragya.

We cordially invite you to attend both the parts of the 7th ICPNA. The first part is a highly significant three-day international dialogue (10th Nov. to 12th Nov., 2008) on Evolving a New Model of Nonviolent Lifestyle for Universal Peace and Sustainability followed by its second part i.e. The Second International Nonviolence Leadership Training Camp (13th Nov. to 14th Nov., 2008).

Theme of the International Dialogue

Every responsible citizen of the world is deeply concerned about the rising tide of violence, crime and hatred speedily engulfing the whole world. We believe that the crisis that has triggered environmental and ecological degradation, economic disparities, gross violation of human rights, abject poverty, hunger, climate change and global warming is man made. It is the result of man's unrestrained and unethical lifestyle, unsustainable development and excessive greed for accumulation of wealth. The crisis is compounded by a new phenomenon i.e. religious terrorism. It is taking a heavy toll of innocent lives across the world. It is widely believed that it may soon turn into nuclear terrorism.

United Nations which has been crusading for peace for the last five decades expressed its serious concern at the religious intolerance that is percolating through social fabric at global level. It is giving rise to a cult of fanaticism which is fuelling communal violence and generating hatred. Alarmed by this rapidly spreading venom UN organized a high level dialogue for interreligious understanding and cooperation at its headquarters on October 4-5, 2007 and held an interactive hearing with civil society to exchange views for enhancing interfaith cooperation. This constructive initiative launched by United Nations reveals the gravity of the situation.

One spiritually elevated soul who is deeply concerned about this critical situation threatening the extinction of human race is His Holiness Acharya Mahapragya, the present Anushasta (preceptor) and Spiritual Patron of Anuvrat Movement, a movement that inspires people to pledge themselves to observe small vows (basic vows) enjoining them to refrain from inessential violence, war, ostentation, religious intolerance, injury to trees, environmental pollution, dishonesty and deception in business, intoxicants like alcohol and drugs like heroin etc. is deeply concerned about this self-inflicted deplorable plight of the people of this planet. He is of the view that the root of the problem lies in our lifestyle propelled by competitive modern economics totally devoid of ethical values. It is making people self-centred, greedy, insensitive and violent. Economic power wielded by multinationals is contributing greatly to a cult of violence and hatred. The current models of economic systems being followed all over the world are accelerating the slide to eco-catastrophe. Acharya Mahapragya has developed an alternative models of economics embedded in ethical values. In the first part of the 7th ICPNA, this model as well as the global issues listed above will be discussed threadbare and solutions with action plans will be recommended. The detailed programme including information about plenary sessions, round-table discussions and workshops is given under separate heads in the foregoing pages.

Anuvibha has so far organized six international conferences on peace and nonviolent action which has attracted hundreds of overseas and Indian thinkers, grassroots workers, scholars and peace activists. It organized its Silver Jubilee on 30th Dec. 2007 at its Peace Palace, Rajsamand (Raj.) under the auspices of the two apostles of peace and nonviolence, Acharya Mahapragya and his successor Yuvacharya Mahashraman.

Nonviolence Leadership Training Camp and Acharya Mahapragya's Vision

As already stated above the second part of the 7th ICPNA is the Second International Nonviolence Leadership Training Camp. We successfully organized the First International Nonviolence Leadership Training Camp from Dec. 26 to Dec. 29, 2007 at Anuvibha's Children's Peace Palace, Rajsamand (Raj.) under the direct guidance of His Holiness Acharya Mahapragya and his successor Yuvacharya Mahashraman. It was a highly successful venture organized by ANUVIBHA in association with Ahimsa Samvaaya Kendras of Jaipur and Rajsamand. You will be pleased to know that His Holiness Acharya Mahapragya and his successor Yuvacharya Mahashraman have agreed to guide and lead the above camp. Acharya Mahapragya, widely known for his transcendental wisdom and clairvoyance, shot into prominence when he embarked on Ahimsa Yatra on Dec. 5, 2001 and became instrumental in extinguishing the flames of fanaticism and restoring peace to the strife-torn state of Gujarat in 2002. His Ahimsa Yatra continues radiating the brilliance of nonviolence even today.

The two apostles of ahimsa believe that mere theoretical deliberations and discourses are ineffective unless they are accompanied by practical experiments. Nonviolence training will consist of practical exercises to activate psychic centres in the body which will enable the trainees to experience inner peace and happiness. The activation of psychic centres brings about transformation among individuals and strengthens their faith in ahimsa. It naturally enhances their emotional competence and relieves them of stress. Needless to say that the two-day nonviolence training camp will equip the participants with infinite cosmic energy to face the challenge in their lives.

If you are interested in the above events i.e. the International Dialogue and the International Nonviolence Leadership Training Camp, kindly complete the registration form being enclosed and email it to the International Coordinator i.e. anuvibha@anuvibha.in or slgandhi@hotmail.com.
