

The Olympia Food Co-op supports a wonderful community resource by supporting the volunteers and providing a 8x8 space on the front of their Westside store at 921 Rogers St NW.

The best source of information is the website at - oly-wa.us/freestore

A lot of what we have are clothes, books, and small housewares.

The FreeStore is open when the volunteers are there, there is a schedule on the website that is updated weekly.

While you are on the website check out the donation DOs&DON'Ts; donation alternatives; and other free stuff pages.

The Olympia Food Co-op supports a wonderful community resource by supporting the volunteers and providing a 8x8 space on the front of their Westside store at 921 Rogers St NW.

The best source of information is the website at - oly-wa.us/freestore

A lot of what we have are clothes, books, and small housewares.

The FreeStore is open when the volunteers are there, there is a schedule on the website that is updated weekly.

While you are on the website check out the donation DOs&DON'Ts; donation alternatives; and other free stuff pages.

The Olympia Food Co-op supports a wonderful community resource by supporting the volunteers and providing a 8x8 space on the front of their Westside store at 921 Rogers St NW.

The best source of information is the website at - oly-wa.us/freestore

A lot of what we have are clothes, books, and small housewares.

The FreeStore is open when the volunteers are there, there is a schedule on the website that is updated weekly.

While you are on the website check out the donation DOs&DON'Ts; donation alternatives; and other free stuff pages.

The Olympia Food Co-op supports a wonderful community resource by supporting the volunteers and providing a 8x8 space on the front of their Westside store at 921 Rogers St NW.

The best source of information is the website at - oly-wa.us/freestore

A lot of what we have are clothes, books, and small housewares.

The FreeStore is open when the volunteers are there, there is a schedule on the website that is updated weekly.

While you are on the website check out the donation DOs&DON'Ts; donation alternatives; and other free stuff pages.