EARTHBOUND PRODUCTIONS POLICIES AND RULES

By engaging in any Earthbound Productions activity or event, you agree to adhere to the following rules and policies.

Participation Rules—we have only three!!

The three rules inspire, nourish and protect the Procession's cultural evolution of imagination, creation and sharing.

NO written or spoken words. We use no words, symbols, or lyrics in our art, music or dance.

NO pets or live animals. We allow no live animals in the Procession with the exception of service animals.

NO motorized vehicles. We do not motorize our creations which includes the use of musical amplification. Of course motorized wheelchairs are certainly permitted.

Participation Policies:

1. You are responsible for ensuring that your materials, costumes, and/or structures are safe and secure against high winds, inclement weather, or other event conditions.
2. You are responsible for removal of your own materials, costumes, and/or structures from the Procession route and the Community Art Studio as soon as possible at the end of the Procession. Otherwise they will be disposed of at our discretion.
3. You agree to hold harmless Earthbound Productions from any and all liability related to your participation in activities or events, including damages to property, theft or personal injury or loss.
4. Earthbound Productions reserves the right to prohibit ANY materials, costumes, or structures which are in conflict with the intention of its events to increase the appreciation and understanding of the natural world and promote environmental protection. The use of real animal skins or fur is not permitted. The Procession is a family event, therefore nudity and/or sexually suggestive behavior is strictly prohibited.
5. If the aforementioned policies are not adhered to Earthbound Productions reserves the right to immediately request the removal of the violator from the Community Art Studio, the Procession of the Species Celebration, the Luminary Procession, or any other Earthbound sponsored event.
