🎄 Olympia's South Bay Grange Hosts First Annual Holiday Market – A Festive Celebration of Local Makers and Community Spirit 🎄

Olympia, WA — The South Bay Grange invites you to kick off the holiday season at its Holiday Market, happening Saturday, November 15th from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM at the historic South Bay Grange Hall (3918 Sleater Kinney Rd NE, Olympia).

This festive, family-friendly event brings together local artisans, crafters, and wellness vendors for a joyful day of shopping, community connection, and seasonal cheer. Discover handmade gifts, vintage treasures, fresh baked goods, holiday décor, wellness products and services, and more - perfect for checking off your holiday list while supporting small businesses and local talent.

🌟 Event Highlights Include:

- Unique, handcrafted gifts from over 25 local vendors
- Fresh and dried wreaths and festive floral arrangements
- Wellness services and products
- Hot drinks and treats served from the Grange kitchen
- Soft music and cozy holiday vibes
- Free admission and plenty of parking
- A wonderfully put together raffle basket valued well over $400.00

“The South Bay Grange Holiday Market is something we plan to do annually,” says Sandy Mode, event organizer. “It’s a chance to celebrate the season, support local makers, and gather as a community in a warm, welcoming space.”

Proceeds from the event support ongoing Grange programs and community initiatives, including building improvements and accessibility upgrades.
